

- Aeronautical Department frames well structured curriculum for UG and PG programs.
- Well established labs have been installed with related software and qualified faculty to teach.
- Aeronautical Department holds qualified faculty with domain knowledge, Industrial exposure and R&D background to teach students.
- The Department has good infrastructure with six classrooms with projector systems, Faculty cabins and conference rooms etc.
- Aeronautical students have secured several VTU ranks every year.
- The Department holds Centre of Excellence (CoE) in Aircraft Design.
- Several clubs have been established such as Astronomy club and UAV club which benefits the students in Design, Development and Application of Technologies at a higher level.
- VTU authorized Research centre has been developed since the academic year 2012-13.
- IIPC- Good industrial relations have been maintained by conducting Internships, Projects, Workshops and Industrial visits.
- Faculty Development Programs and Seminars are conducted from time to time to bridge the gap and widen the scope between the Industry and the Academics.