

Report on Community Outreach Initiative by MVJ College of Engineering: Distribution of Lunch at Happy Home Orphanage, Bangarpet.

The NSS wing of MVJ College of Engineering (MVJCE) organized a heartwarming community outreach event on 1st November 2024, providing a special lunch to the children of the Happy Home orphanage near Bangarpet. This initiative was designed to offer not just a nutritious meal but also a memorable and uplifting experience for the young residents.

Event Highlights

The thoughtfully prepared lunch menu included a variety of wholesome dishes to ensure a balanced and satisfying meal:

- Rice
- Rasam
- Papad
- Payasam
- Curd Rice
- Roti
- Paneer Masala
- Salad
- Veg Pulav
- Laddoo
- Mixture Packet

A total of 80 children, including both gifted and typical children, enjoyed the meal. The dishes such as Roti, Paneer Masala, Salad, Veg Pulav, Papad, Laddoo, and Mixture Packet were particularly well-received and devoured with enthusiasm. The Rice, Rasam, Payasam, and Curd Rice dishes were prepared in abundance, ensuring there was enough left for the children to enjoy during dinner, extending the positive impact of this initiative.

Impact

The event created a joyful and lively atmosphere at the orphanage, with smiles and laughter echoing throughout. It was not merely about food; it was about sharing moments of care and compassion, which left a lasting impression on both the children and the MVJCE volunteers.

Outcome

The event successfully:

- Brought joy and warmth to the children at Happy Home orphanage.
- Reinforced MVJCE's commitment to social responsibility and community welfare.
- Strengthened the bond between MVJCE and the community.

Future Plans

NSS wing of MVJCE is committed to continuing its support for Happy Home orphanage. Plans are already underway to organize more such initiatives to meet the needs of the children in meaningful ways, creating lasting impacts on their lives.

This memorable outreach event exemplified the spirit of care and generosity at MVJCE, leaving both the volunteers and children with cherished memories of a day filled with compassion, joy, and fulfillment.
